

The National Institute for Direct Instruction Presents—

The 48th Annual National Direct Instruction Conference and Institutes

Graduate Eugene & Conference Center
Eugene, Oregon
July 25–29, 2022

48th Annual National Direct Instruction Conference and Training Institutes

The past two years have been a challenge for educators around the world. Here at the National Institute for Direct Instruction (NIFDI), we are pleased to be able to return to our standard in-person, high quality training in Direct Instruction.

Over the past 48 years, thousands of DI practitioners have gathered in Eugene each July to learn new skills, refine existing skills, and discover new ways of helping students worldwide. This year will be no exception to the goal of making sure each student has the best opportunity to succeed and be a contributing member of society.

This year the conference will feature training on Reading Mastery Transformations. The revised program will be featured during the welcoming DI Block Party on Tuesday, July 26th. There, participants will have the opportunity to hear a little bit about the new edition. The Block Party is also a perfect opportunity for you to socialize with your friends and meet other participants from around the world.

Our featured Keynote speaker this year is Dr. Anita Archer. Anita is program co-author and the author of the popular text Explicit Instruction. She is a dynamic and engaging speaker. You can read her biography on page 3.

At the conference closing we will be recognizing 3 outstanding educators and presenting them with induction into the Direct Instruction Hall of Fame. The recipients are Mary Gleason, Kathy Madigan and Vicky Vachon. You will hear about their contributions to Direct Instruction and the difference they have made in the lives of so many instructors and children.

No matter what your job title is—principal, supervisor, literacy coach, teacher, paraprofessional, professor, or something else—the National DI Conference has something for you. In response to attendee feedback, we have updated and expanded the content of many sessions.

Plan on coming to Eugene this summer and take advantage of the beautiful location and take part in the most comprehensive offering of Direct Instruction training and information available—anywhere!

We look forward to seeing you in Eugene this July!

Sincerely,

Bryan Wickman

INSTITUTES

All Day Monday–Friday

Direct Instruction Coaching Institute

Intended Audience: Lead, mentor or master teachers and consultants who serve as a staff development resource

Experience Level: Experienced

Presenter: Ginger Herrman and Cheri Gerrein

Whether you're an instructional coach, peer coach, or administrator responsible for improving student performance, one of the most critical roles in a successful Direct Instruction implementation is the coach. With good, careful coaching, teachers will become more skilled and proficient in teaching the DI programs, and students will excel with improved instruction.

In an implementation that does not incorporate high-quality coaching, some teachers will become stars, but others may demonstrate little to no improvement, keeping the implementation as a whole from achieving a high level of success. With effective coaching, staff development, and strong leadership, teachers using Direct Instruction will improve dramatically, and students will progress farther and faster than they ever have before.

This Institute will equip building and district-level instructional coaches, peer coaches, lead teachers and mentor teachers with critical coaching and support skills.

Participants will learn how to:

- Gain meaningful information from lesson progress and in-program mastery data.
- Model how to improve written records.
- Conduct supportive classroom observations and demonstrations aimed at increasing student success.
- Provide effective oral and written feedback to instructors to directly impact student performance.
- Design and deliver effective, on-going professional development sessions.
- Facilitate rehearsal sessions.
- Determine the appropriate intervention based on data and observation.
- Facilitate Data Analysis Team meetings to find and solve student performance problems in a timely manner.

“If I could write every word said, I would. Everything is inspirational and informative.”

Institutes Continued All Day Monday–Friday

Becoming an Effective Direct Instruction Trainer

Intended Audience: Staff Development Specialists and Experienced DI Instructors

Experience Level: Experienced

Presenters: Tamara Bressi, Rochelle Davisson

Has your district received training and on-site coaching support for implementing Direct Instruction (DI) and is now looking for ways of maintaining the implementation with a high level of fidelity? The Institute on Becoming an Effective DI Trainer can help your school or district expand its capacity for providing training and support to the DI implementation by developing on-site trainers.

The institute provides training for teachers, coaches, and building coordinators who already have substantial DI experience and are ready to become trainers. Over the course of five days, participants are introduced to the main steps for developing a program training for teachers new to Direct Instruction, which includes:

- creating a training outline;
- designing materials for a training packet;
- identifying critical program formats; and
- articulating the rationale for the program's design.

Participants pre-select a program and level to train, develop an outline for training teachers in the program, and then deliver a presentation to the other participants. Trainees spend approximately half their time with the course leaders and half their time observing and assisting in actual program training sessions at the conference.

Participation in the institute requires extensive experience with Direct Instruction programs. A prerequisite to being admitted to the institute is a minimum of two full years of experience teaching a level of:

- Reading Mastery
- Connecting Math Concepts
- Corrective Reading Decoding

The institute does not provide program training—it assumes that applicants have already been trained in their pre-selected program and have substantial first-hand experience teaching the program. The focus of the institute is on effective training techniques and the content that needs to be included in training. Other sessions at the conference provide program-specific training.

Prospective participants must complete a separate application form for admission into the institute (see page 20). Enrollment is limited. Please complete and return your application by June 3, 2022. Notification of acceptance will be made by June 17, 2022.

Pre-Pay for Lunch!

Purchase your meal ticket in advance for the popular patio lunch offerings during the conference. Save time waiting in line and the hassle of receipts.

*Monday–Friday: $80.00
Tuesday–Friday: $64.00*

All Day Tuesday–Friday (No Monday Session)

Administrator Leadership Institute: Effective Implementation of DI for All Students

Intended Audience: District and building-level administrators and supervisors

Experience Level: All

Presenters: Kurt Engelmann and Tara Davis

A successful Direct Instruction (DI) implementation requires the active participation of a fully engaged administrative team. The role of these individuals is to ensure student achievement by setting up the implementation for success, providing ongoing support to teachers and paraprofessionals, monitoring the effectiveness of instruction and solving implementation problems as they arise. This intensive four-day session provides a deeper understanding of the rationale for the comprehensive DI schoolwide model as it guides administrators through the practical and proven steps that promote student learning.

The goal of the Administrator Institute is for participants to become familiar with 1) what steps are needed to ensure that DI is implemented effectively for all students and 2) when these steps should be taken. The institute is structured around a calendar that provides a month-by-month breakdown of the major actions to take for a successful implementation of DI. Year-to-year changes that need to occur in order to build the school's capacity to provide effective implementation support will also be discussed. In addition, the session addresses how to avoid some of the pitfalls that can hamper a schoolwide implementation of DI and prevent schools from maximizing student achievement.

The session references DI Senior Author Siegfried Engelmann's guidelines for the full implementation of Direct Instruction curricula as it addresses the following questions:

- What results can schools expect from the comprehensive Direct Instruction schoolwide model?
- How do the design features of the Direct Instruction curricula lead to improved student outcomes?
- What are the advantages of implementing Direct Instruction schoolwide?
- How can instruction be adjusted to meet different student needs through DI?

Participants engage in several activities that simulate specific actions to be taken in schools, including conducting observations of videos of actual classroom instruction. A particular emphasis of the session is on analyzing student performance data on student placement, mastery and lesson progress for a wide range of instructional levels and classroom situations. Participants learn how to utilize these data to guide adjustments in instruction as a means of improving outcomes for all students.

This session is appropriate for both school administrators who are new and those who are experienced with DI.

“This conference always gives me that ‘shot in the arm’ that I need to get ready for the school year!”

A SESSIONS

Tuesday–Friday MORNINGS

A1) Reading Mastery Signature Edition Grade K Reading

Intended Audience: Open
Experience Level: All
Presenter: Sean Duncan

This session will prepare participants to effectively implement Reading Mastery Signature Edition Grade K, a beginning reading program for non-reading children. The Grade K program teaches all the prerequisite skills children need to master the fundamentals of beginning literacy including phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency and comprehension.

Children in the Grade K program learn sounds for letters and read words composed of sounds they have learned in a carefully programmed sequence of skills. Lessons include pre-reading exercises, rhyming, beginning decoding activities, symbol identification, comprehension activities and more.

A2) Reading Mastery Signature Edition Grade 1 Reading

Intended Audience: Open
Experience Level: All
Presenter: Donna Dressman

This session will prepare participants to effectively implement Reading Mastery Signature Edition Grade 1, which is the second level of Reading Mastery. Vocabulary and instructional details that are presented at the beginning of RMSE Grade 1 are carefully geared to what children learned in Grade K.

Participants will learn how students in RMSE Grade 1 develop strategies for decoding difficult words, increase fluency in passage reading, and develop strategies for answering a range of oral and written comprehension questions. Participants will also learn how RMSE Grade 1 develops basic reasoning skills such as making inferences, drawing conclusions and working independently.

A3) Reading Mastery Transformations Grade K Language

Intended Audience: Open
Experience Level: All
Presenter: Robyn Hendrickson

NEW SESSION! Grade K Language of Reading Mastery Transformations is the newest edition of Reading Mastery. Teacher presentations are streamed to a tablet or other device, and all display material is projected on a screen or smart board. Student material has been updated to include new illustrations or, where possible, photographs. As with earlier editions, the daily lessons teach students the words, concepts, and statements important to both oral and written language. Grade K focuses on the language of instruction—following directions, answering questions, sentence production, comparatives, classification and if-then reasoning.

Grade K Language is appropriate for kindergarten and primary school-aged children who have not acquired the language knowledge and skills for their age. It is also appropriate for preschool children and primary-aged students in bilingual and ELL settings.

A4) Reading Mastery Transformations Grade 1 Language

*Intended Audience: Open
Experience Level: All
Presenter: Jennifer London*

NEW SESSION! The Grade 1 level of Reading Mastery Transformations is the newest edition of Reading Mastery. New sequences for teaching how to observe and describe, and then compare and report on pictures can be found. Word skills (opposites, definitions, synonyms, contractions), reasoning skills (same/different, true/false, analogies), map reading and calendar skills are taught and practiced extensively. Story grammar and literature exercises contain interesting and amusing stories that allow students to learn about character development and become proficient in story-related writing.

“Our trainer made this very difficult work upbeat, fast-paced and positive!”

Pick Up Your Summer Reading at the DI Store!

The DI store offers a comprehensive selection of texts and supplements on a wide range of DI-related topics. Pick up your favorite titles or something new and learn how to be more effective in the classroom!

By Grade 5, writing includes essays, dialogues, short stories and poetry.

A7) Corrective Reading Decoding A–C—Introductory Training

Intended Audience: Open

Experience Level: All

Presenter: Randi Saulter

The Corrective Reading program provides systematic reading instruction to students performing below grade level expectations in grades four and above. This session provides an overview of the four Decoding levels and also includes some practice in presenting selected exercises.

Decoding A addresses non-readers by teaching sound-spelling relationships. Students are taught reading strategies for sounding out words and applying those strategies in context.

Decoding B1 and B2 refine word attack skills by introducing new vocabulary and promoting word discrimination. There is a strong emphasis on fluency building as well as comprehension. Practice for rate and accuracy and charting of daily fluency progress are features that help corrective readers catch up with peers.

Decoding C teaches students to apply the skills they have learned in prior levels to a broad range of material—textbooks, newspapers, magazines, and other forms of print. Comprehension is emphasized, including skills such as identifying cause and effect, main idea, sequencing, summarizing/retelling and referencing text for specific factual information.

A8) Connecting Math Concepts: Comprehensive Edition Levels B and C Introductory Training

Intended Audience: Open

Experience Level: All

Presenter: Marvelyn Johnson

This session provides introductory training to prepare for teaching Connecting Math Concepts: Comprehensive Edition Levels B and C.

Students in Level B will continue to apply concepts taught in earlier levels—measurement, time, money, geometry, estimation and place value and with an emphasis on problem solving. By the time students have completed Level C, they are very firm on these skills.

A9) Connecting Math Concepts: Comprehensive Edition Levels D–F, Introductory Training

Intended Audience: Open

Experience Level: All

Presenter: Kristal Childs

This session provides introductory training for teaching Connecting Math Concepts: Comprehensive Edition Levels D through F.

Levels D, E and F develop more complex problem-solving strategies and provide a thorough grounding in fractions, decimals and percent, ratios and proportions and basic geometry.

“This training filled in so many gaps that I was missing!”

B SESSIONS

Tuesday & Wednesday MORNINGS

B1) Overview of Essentials for Algebra

Intended Audience: Open, teachers and leadership at the middle or high school level
Experience Level: All
Presenter: Bernadette Kelly

Essentials for Algebra is a Direct Instruction math program for middle or high school students who are at risk of failing exit requirements for high school graduation. This session provides an overview of the program (pre-algebra and beginning algebra) and also includes some practice in presenting selected exercises.

The design of Essentials for Algebra makes it possible to teach content that is typically difficult for at-risk students to learn. The program content includes strategies for solving probability problems, work on the coordinate system, signed numbers, various multi-step algebra problems and unique strategies for solving rate, ratio, and proportion problems.

B2) Analyzing Student Performance in DI Programs

Audience/Track: Academic
Experience Level: All
Presenter: Kris Althoff

Recording in-program data can sometimes seem like just busy work to instructors if they don't know why it is necessary and what to do with it once it has been recorded. This session will demonstrate and analyze how to collect and then use in-program student performance data to drive instruction. Participants will learn what data should be collected, who should review it and how often it should be reviewed. Different data collection systems will be explored. Participants will also learn effective and practical applications using the information gained through the analysis of the recorded data.

C SESSIONS

Thursday & Friday MORNINGS

C1) Management and Teaching Techniques for Low-Incidence Disabilities

Intended Audience: Supervisors and directors, school psychologists, and coaches
Experience Level: Experienced
Presenter: TBA

UPDATED SESSION! Teachers who work with students that are too low to place in a DI program would benefit from this session. This workshop will focus on technical detail on how to manage inappropriate behaviors and teach very low performing students. The workshop provides teachers with ideas and specific techniques for what to teach; strategies for dealing with problems of echolalia, limited receptive language and how to expand, firm and generalize tasks. Participants will receive a copy of Siegfried Engelmann's manual, Strategies for Teaching Students with Low-Incidence Disabilities.

C3) Overview of Essentials for Writing

Intended Audience: Teachers or administrators at the middle or high school level
Experience Level: All
Presenter: Bonnie Grossen

The goal of Essentials for Writing is to prepare high school students to pass the writing component of the high school exit exams in most states, especially in California and Florida. This program may be seen as a sequel to Expressive Writing 2 in its emphasis on writing.

Students learn to write retells, persuasive arguments, descriptions, autobiographical sketches, responses to literature and stories with specific themes. Different from Reasoning and Writing, there is less logic and science included in this program. To pass high school exit exams, students also need fluency skills. These skills are provided by Corrective Reading and are not included in Essentials for Writing.

The introduction of complex sentence forms and range of vocabulary activities in RMT 2 will be reviewed. In addition, participants will see how Grade 3 students learn to evaluate problems and solutions, learn facts about the world, interpret maps, graphs and timelines and complete research projects. Participants will develop knowledge of daily reading selections that include realistic fiction, fantasy and factual articles.

D6) Reading Mastery Transformations Grades 4 and 5 Language

Intended Audience: Open

Experience Level: All

Presenter: Amy Braunberger

Note: The focus of this training is on Reading Mastery Transformations, however the teaching skills are applicable to Reading Mastery Signature Edition.

NEW SESSION! Grade 4 of the RMT Language strand teaches expository and narrative writing, grammar, critical thinking and study skills. The program starts with a focus on critical analysis of arguments and claims and analyzing and correcting problems caused by a lack of specificity. Later lessons focus on writing stories and reports, giving speeches and using reference materials. By the end of the program, students will be able to write a five-paragraph persuasive report and present it while students in the audience take notes and provide feedback.

In Grade 5, the main content of the program includes retell, constructing parallel sentences, writing directions and arguments, and parts of speech. In the vocabulary track, students use different strategies to extend and improve their vocabulary. Daily writing activities provide students with opportunities to respond to literature, make judgements about important story events and write their own stories and poems.

D7) Corrective Reading Comprehension A–C—Introductory Training

Intended Audience: Open

Experience Level: All

Presenter: Kristal Childs

The Corrective Reading program provides systematic reading comprehension and language instruction to students performing below grade level expectations in grades four and above. This session provides an overview of the four Comprehension levels and also includes some practice in presenting selected exercises.

Comprehension A creates a framework for learning new information and filling in crucial background knowledge. It teaches basic reasoning skills that form the framework for learning information. Students are taught thinking operations they can apply to any content area. Skills taught include vocabulary (definitions, synonyms and antonyms, descriptions), logical thinking skills, common semantics and background knowledge (such as animal classification).

Comprehension B1 and B2 develop the skills necessary to extract meaning from content-based texts, such as books, newspapers, and magazines. Lessons focus on developing background knowledge, vocabulary, and thinking skills needed to construct meaning from written material. By the end of Level B, students will have mastered skills in literal and inferential comprehension, reading for information, following sequenced instructions, analyzing contradictions, and understanding common information.

Comprehension C develops the skills necessary to apply reasoning concepts independently. Students learn new strategies and apply concepts to specific examples while the teacher monitors independent student work and differentiates questions to check for understanding. By the end of level C, students will be proficient at analyzing arguments, organizing and using sources of information and communicating in written form.

D Sessions Continued Tuesday–Friday AFTERNOONS

D8) Connecting Math Concepts: Comprehensive Edition Levels A & DISTAR Arithmetic I

*Intended Audience: Open
Experience Level: All
Presenter: Sean Duncan*

Connecting Math Concepts: Comprehensive Edition (CMCCE) Level A teaches the component skills and operations required to provide a solid foundation in number skills. Children who complete CMCCE Level A will have a strong understanding of the fundamental logic of math as it applies to addition, subtraction, word problems and the relationship of base-10 numerals to addition. The program includes tracks on money, geometry, measurement, data classification and organization. The program addresses all the standards specified in the Common Core State Standards for grade 1 mathematics.

DISTAR Arithmetic I teaches students to perform the basic operations of addition, algebra addition (missing addends), and subtraction. Upon finishing the program, learners are able to work simple story problems involving those operations, solve simple problems based on the more-than or less-than signs, derive new arithmetic facts based on an understanding of approximately 35 facts, and apply ordinal counting to simple picture problems.

D9) CHAMPS: Proactive Behavior Management

*Intended Audience: Open
Experience Level: All
Presenter: Randi Saulter*

CHAMPS (Conversation, Help, Activity, Movement, Participation, Success) assists classroom teachers in designing and fine-tuning a proactive and positive classroom management plan that overtly teaches students how to behave responsibly. This session will train participants to implement the strategies presented in CHAMPS, including:

- reducing classroom disruptions and office referrals;
- improving classroom climate;
- increasing student on-task behavior; and
- establishing respectful and civil interactions.

By following the effective, research-based practices outlined in CHAMPS, participants will develop methods for clearly communicating their expectations for every classroom activity and transition. These clear expectations, combined with logical and fair responses to misbehavior, allow teachers to spend less time disciplining and more time teaching.

Note: This session has a materials charge of $40.00. Each participant will receive a copy of CHAMPS, a $45.00 value.

“It was a week filled with information, fun and practice. Eugene is such a great location with so much to do. I come back year after year”

E SESSIONS

Tuesday & Wednesday AFTERNOONS

E1) Effective Instruction and Environment: Prevention and Management of Non-Compliant and Disruptive Behavior in the Classroom

Intended Audience: Behavior supervisors and directors, school psychologists and coaches
Experience Level: Experienced
Presenter: TBA

Non-compliance and defiance are two of the most pervasive and troublesome problem behaviors facing educators today. In this workshop, in-depth information and training will be provided for understanding how effective instructional planning and delivery in coordination with thoughtful classroom arrangements can be used both as prevention and as a framework for effective management of non-compliant and disruptive behaviors. Activities and video scenarios will be used to engage participants in consideration of how these strategies can be adapted to meet their unique needs.

E2) Advanced DI Delivery Techniques

Intended Audience: Teachers, supervisors, and administrators experienced in teaching DI programs
Experience Level: Experienced
Presenter: Donna Dressman

This session is designed for experienced teachers of Direct Instruction materials, supervisors, and administrators. Information presented will focus on both student and teacher mastery, enhancements and modifications to the lesson presentation, data collection during instruction, and monitoring and modifying your DI implementation. Illustrations and examples will be taken from a variety of curriculum areas, with an emphasis on reading and language. At least two years of experience with DI is recommended.

F SESSIONS

Thursday & Friday AFTERNOONS

F1) Research on DI: Policy and Practice

Intended Audience: Open
Experience Level: All
Presenter: Marcy Stein

First, this session will review the historic and current research base on Direct Instruction. Studies examining specific DI programs and those related to specific populations, such as students with disabilities, will be covered. Attention will be given to studies of implementation characteristics associated with high student achievement. Participants will then look at how this research informs (or doesn't inform) policy, including projects such as the What Works Clearinghouse.

The session will also include information on a way for participants to analyze their data and compare it with other schools, their state, etc.

F2) Design of Instruction—Deconstructing DI

Audience/Track: Academic, Leadership
Experience Level: All
Presenter: Evan Haney

Beyond the superficial features of Direct Instruction programs, there is a complex set of instructional design principles. Because of these design principles, when DI is properly delivered, student outcomes will surpass the outcomes of other forms of instruction. In this session, participants will gain insight into what those design principles are and how the program designers apply them to a variety of skill sets.

- Connecticut (130 teachers and administrators in 2014)
- Georgia (250 teachers in 2009)
- Guam (750 teachers and 50 administrators in 2004)
